

Name	Residence	Town	Occupation
Ashton John	Cowhill, near	Oldham		Sabred. Carried the black flag. Died on the field. The inquest jury returned a verdict of accidental death. His son, Samuel, received 20/- in relief.
Ashworth John	Bull's-head Inn	Manchester		Special constable. Trampled by the cavalry on the field and possibly sabred.
Bradshaw William	Lilly Hill	Whitefield		Wounded by a musket. Location uncertain.
Buckley Thomas	Baretrees	Chadderton		Sabred and stabbed with a bayonet. Location uncertain.
Campbell Robert	18 Miller Street	Manchester	Watchman	Special constable. Killed by the populace in Newton Lane on 18 August. Buried in St. John's churchyard.
Crompton James		Barton-upon-Irwell		Trampled upon by the cavalry on the field. Buried 1 September.
Dawson Edmund		Saddleworth		Sabred on the head on the field. He and William were in possession of a pole carrying a cap of liberty. Died 31 August. Inquest produced a verdict of 'wilful murder not allowed'.
Dawson William		Saddleworth		Sabred and crushed by the cavalry on the field. Died 1 September in the Infirmary
Downes Margaret				Sabred on the field. 'Dreadfully cut in the breast; secreted clandestinely and not heard of. Supposed dead'.
Evans William	1 Owen Street, [Queen-street]	Hulme	Carter	Special constable. Employee of Pickfords. Trampled on the field by the Yeomanry Cavalry horses. Received

Fildes	William	23 Kennedy-street	Manchester		nothing but 20/- relief from Messrs Shuttleworth and Whitworth. Died sometime after 2 December. Son of Ann Fildes. Trampled by the cavalry in Cooper Street after his mother was knocked down by a lone rider.
Heys [Hays]	Mary	8 Rawlinson's Buildings, Oxford Road	Chorlton Row		Trampled by a Cavalry horse on the field. Her foot was stripped of the flesh and great toe nails. She was pregnant at the time and suffered fits almost daily until she died. She gave birth to a premature child which caused her death on 17 December. Buried in Walkers Croft burial ground. £5 received in relief.
Jones	Sarah	96 Silk Street [George Leigh-street]	Manchester		Beaten on the head and much bruised on the field by Constables' truncheons. She identified Thomas Wordsworth (or Woodworth), a Special Constable, of Newton Lane as her assailant. £4 received in relief.
Lees	John		Oldham	Spinner	Sabred and beaten by truncheons on the field. Died on 30 August. An inquest was adjourned without a verdict.
O'Neale [O'Neil] [Neil]	Arthur	3 Pigeon Street [Ancoats-street]	Manchester	Weaver	Aged 40. Beaten on the field by the Constables' truncheons and trampled by the crowd; breast bruised, and internally injured. Confined in the New Bailey for want of bail. £4 10s received in relief.
Parkinson [Partington]	Martha	King Street [Barton-upon-Irwell]	Eccles		Aged 38. Thrown into a cellar in Bridge Street by pressure of the crowd. Died on the spot. Husband received £5 in relief.
Rhodes	John	3 Pits, Hopwood near	Middleton		Aged 22. Sabred on the field - a cut on the head, by which he lost much blood. Dreadfully crushed in the body. Died 18 or 19 November. His father received £6 6s in relief. Inquest returned a verdict of death from natural causes.
Whitworth	Joseph [Joshua]	Hyde, near	Stockport		Aged 19. Killed by a musket ball to the head in Ancoats Street, New Cross, on the evening of the 16th August. Died at the Infirmary on 20 August. Inquest found that he was shot at New Cross. His father received £4 in relief.